

Información del Plan Docente

Academic Year	2017/18
Faculty / School	102 - Facultad de Derecho
Degree	421 - Degree in Law
ECTS	9.0
Year	4
Semester	Second semester
Subject Type	Compulsory
Module	---

1.General information1.1.Introduction*1.2.Recommendations to take this course*1.3.Context and importance of this course in the degree*1.4.Activities and key dates*2.Learning goals*2.1.Learning goals*2.2.Importance of learning goals*3.Aims of the course and competences*3.1.Aims of the course*3.2.Competences*4.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)*4.1.Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)*5.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources*5.1.Methodological overview*General methodological presentation

Teaching of Private International Law is founded on a double theoretical and practical methodology. Therefore it seeks, through lectures, the transmission of knowledge and concepts in an understandable way. Through practical activities, directed by the Professor, the student learns to apply theoretical knowledge to the solution and regulation of international private relations or heterogeneous in its practical side.

27730 - International Private Law

5.2.Learning tasks

Learning activities programmed

1. Formative activities, teaching methodology and relation with the competence to acquire and the learning outcomes.

5.3.Syllabus

The program of the course will develop the basic content of Private International Law, contained in the Report of the Degree:

1. Purpose, content and sources of Private International Law. Function and concept of Private International Law. Autonomous Private International Law and Community Private International Law. Internal dimension of Private International Law.
2. International jurisdiction. Civil process and border disputes. International civil cooperation.
3. Technical regulations and standards. Law applicable to international private relations: general issues and problems of implementation.
4. Applicable Law to private international relations (special part) Right: International relations of Civil Law, International Trade and International Labor Law.
5. Extraterritorial effectiveness of foreign acts and decisions.

5.4.Course planning and calendar

5.5.Bibliography and recommended resources