Universidad Zaragoza

67518 - Master's Dissertation

Información del Plan Docente

Academic Year	2017/18
Faculty / School
Degree
ECTS	12.0
Year	---
Semester	Second semester
Subject Type
Module	---

1.General information

1.1.Introduction

1.2.Recommendations to take this course

1.3.Context and importance of this course in the degree

1.4.Activities and key dates

2.Learning goals

2.1.Learning goals

2.2.Importance of learning goals

3.Aims of the course and competences

3.1.Aims of the course

3.2.Competences

4.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

4.1.Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)

5.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

5.1.Methodological overview

The Master's dissertation is a personal and individualized learning process; nonetheless, an advisor is appointed for every student. In the process of dialogue and interaction with the advisor and other scholars, students will advance in their training in research skills and are expected to develop results on the chosen field of work.

5.2.Learning tasks

67518 - Master's Dissertation

Students must establish a written agreement with their respective advisors.

Periodic meetings will take place with the advisor in order to help students to further progress in their work, on an individual basis.

5.3.Syllabus

5.4.Course planning and calendar

At the beginning of the second semester, students should choose the topic of their Master's dissertation (TFM). At the same time, advisors will be asigned to all students to help them all along the process of elaboration of their TFM.

Calls for public presentations of dissertations will be established by the School of Economics and Business. The schedule will be available on the website of the School.

5.5.Bibliography and recommended resources
There are no bibliographic records for this course.